SUCCESSFUL MEETING HELD

A very pleasant and profitable time was spent by those who attended the meeting held by the Liberal Association in the Betchton school house on Friday evening last. The school which is one of the best country schools in Alberta was tastefully and prettily decorated for the assembly by the ladies of the district.

The occasion of this meeting and elaborate preparation was a visit from the Hon Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture, and member of the legislature for the Olds electoral district. Dr. Clark member for the Dominion house was also on the program to speak but owing to an accident to his foot was unable to be present. Thru Mr Marshall, he sent his regret and promised to visit this district at some future time. Mr John Turnbull occupied the chair, filling the position in a capable and pleasant manner and after a short speech in which he apologized for the absence of Dr. Clark called on Mr H E Shenfield for an address.

The call was quite impromptuous to Mr Shenfield but he responded and in a few brief words expressed his delight at being able to be present. The school house pleased him very much and was the subject of some well deserved praise by him. He also expressed his regret that Dr Clark was not with them. The chairman then announced the Hon. Duncan Marshall. Mr Marshall opened his address with a few good reasons for his acceptance of the invitation that had been extended to him. One he gave was that he now felt that he could visit this district without being accused of looking for anyone's immediate vote. Another was to get better acquainted with his electorate and their needs; to meet them personally and to look over their roads and discuss with them ways and means for improvement; also improvements existing in Alberta as a whole.

After a short but convincing explanation of the trouble which led to the province having a new premier, Mr Marshall turned to conditions in Alberta. Railways telephones roads and bridges, he stated were being built as quickly as finances would warrant them and where they would be most needed. Freight rates which play such an important part in everyday business were being investigated. His department now has a freight rate expert travelling in Canada and the United States making comparisons and seeking a remedy. As an example he stated an incident at Olds that day. He with other neighbors delivered steers at the market in Olds for which they received 3.75 per hundred. Had it been possible for the buyer to ship to Chicago they would have readily received 5.00 or 5.50. The tariff and high freight made the difference. Again, he has bought coal in Edmonton at 3.00 a ton, in Olds they pay 7.00. On enquiry he was told that the freight made the extra charge. This assured him that transportation charges needed investigation. Other local conditions were fully discussed by him.

Mr Marshall then gave his audience a little talk on Dominion affairs and the Reciprocity Congress about to be held regarding the tariff between Canada and the United States. The American people are ready he believed for the movement. There feelings he sounded, by a speech delivered to the Dry Farming Congress held recently at Spokane, at which the exhibit sent by his department won first prize in competition against the world. The benefits derived from Reciprocity would be for the farmer. By a lower tariff he could find an easier and more profitable market for his goods and exchange, purchase farm implements and other necessary supplies at more reasonable prices. The manufacturers are making a strong fight against the change and have to be carefully reckoned with. Since 1896 the tariff on a great many commodities has been reduced from 50 to 8 per cent. The effects have already been felt by the whole Dominion and we still have the manufacturers. Thanking the audience for their close attention Mr Marshall brought his address to a close.

The ladies then served lunch which was very carefully prepared and the menu was a credit to those in charge. Meats, cakes, apples, nuts and candies were passed around and everyone had enough and to spare. Mrs Marshall was present. All ladies pronounced her a charming and pleasant guest. Besides the Betchton people, friends from Olds, Bowden and Trochu enjoyed the evening. Before the meeting broke up Mr H Shenfield moved a vote of thanks on behalf of the visitors to their Betchton friends for the hearty and royal treatment extended by them. The motion was seconded by Mr Maybanks of Olds and carried unanimously. 'God save our King' closed the pleasant evening.

Anniversary of Birth of Dr. Johnson

The two hundred and first anniversary of the birth of Dr. Samuel Johnson has just been celebrated in his native city of Litchfield. Among the state proceedings the principal feature was the inauguration of a Johnson society, which aims at aggravating the interest in the doctor's life and works. At a supper of Johnsonian fare, Oscar Browning expressed a hope that it would be found possible to secure the house in Gough Square, where Johnson lived, as a national memorial. There are two facts, however, that prove the absurdity of the suggestion. Firstly, London is, to use Londonese, "fed up" with Johnsonian memorials; the neighborhood of Fleet street fairly shrieks of Johnson. There is the statue of Johnson, the Johnson's pew in St. Clement Danes, Johnson's court, Johnson's walk, besides the inscriptions on the many houses where he lived. Secondly, the house in Gough square is a mere shell, with no interior features of interest, except the memory that the famous dictionary was compiled in the garret. It would take a small fortune to make the house visitable, a fortune that any unprejudiced literary body could expend in a hundred better ways.

Professor Harry Thurston Peck, at a literary dinner in New York, discussed men of genius in his usual brilliant manner. Professor Peck's address began humorously. "There are, he said, 'many different opinions as to the true definition of a genius, but all authorities agree that it is generally unsafe to lend the fellow money.'"

A Pleasant Purgative.—Purmesee's Vegetable Pills are so compounded as to operate on both the stomach and the bowels, so that they act along the whole alimentary and excretory passage. They are not drastic in their work, but mildly purgative, and the pleasure of taking them is only equalled by the gratifying effect they produce. Compounded only of vegetable substances the curative qualities of which are fully tested, they afford relief without a chance of injury.

He Took the Blame

August Hermann, the new grand exalted ruler of the Elks, said at an Elks' banquet in Detroit:

"The guilty man always gives himself away, for, like the chap who bought the 40-cent bathing suit, he can't hide his guilty conscience."

"The chap I have in mind entered the water at Atlantic City in a 40-cent suit of blue flannel. As he splashed about he was joined by a girl friend. The girl flashed her bright eyes over the tumbling expanse of sea, and then, with a sigh of delight, she said:

"Isn't the water blue today?"
"It's shameful!" said the man, with a hot blush; "it's perfectly shameful how this cheap bathing flannel runs!"—Washington Star.

RHEUMATISM CURED

Zam-Buk Will Give You Relief

When you have any deep-seated pain in the joints, the back, the wrists or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it in. The penetrating power of this "embrocation-balm" is very great. It kills pain and removes stiffness. Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 25 Guy Avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt any of the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, driving them completely out, and now I am quite cured."

So many of the ordinary embrocations and liniments are imperfectly prepared and not sufficiently refined to penetrate even the skin—much less the underlying muscles. Zam-Buk is totally different. Zam-Buk is so refined, and its essences and juices are so concentrated, that when rubbed into the muscles for rheumatism, sciatica, sprains, etc., its effects are very quickly felt.

It rubbed on to the chest and between the shoulders in cases of bad cold on the chest, Zam-Buk will give relief. Apart from its use as an embrocation, Zam-Buk will be found a cure for all ordinary forms of skin disease and injury. It cures eczema, rashes, ringworm, cold sores, ulcers, abscesses, chapped hands, piles, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c., or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

Fainting Also Alarmed Her — Now Strength and Energy are Restored by DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Pain is often a blessing in disguise. For when you suffer you get in earnest about a cure.

Many who are in a really serious condition from nervous exhaustion do not realize they are in danger because they have no pain.

They are weak and easily fatigued, their digestive system lacks the necessary vigor to digest food, appetite is poor and interest in life seems to wane. Some even have dizzy spells and fainting spells, as had the writer of this letter, before realizing the danger they are in.

To such heart failure or some form of paralysis is liable to come at any moment.

Why not take definite action today so that restoration may begin at once. You can get Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at almost any store where medicine is sold, and can be sure that every dose brings you so much nearer to health and vigor.

Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayer's Cliff, Que., writes: "Before I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I was in a terrible condition, dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor. I could not so much as sweep the floor without fainting. My nervous system was all run down."

"Doctors failed to help me so I turned to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I soon felt that it was a God-send to me because I could feel that it was restoring my system. I can now wash and do the housework without difficulty and give all credit for the cure to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

The genuine Dr. Chase's Nerve Food bears portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author, 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

Old Daniel Drew was at his house on Union square one day when his clerks sent up for the combination of the safe which they wanted to open. Drew said it was "door." They sent again, saying it was a five letter combination and they couldn't make "door" go. Finally Drew went down. "When I took the thing in hand," he said, "the safe opened as easy as anything. I turned to them: 'There,' says I, 'it opens as easy as an old sack. Just d-o-a-r-e.'"

"I say, Geneva, what's the news?" demanded his lordship. "Where is Chase?"

Now, the princess, it is most distressing to state, had willfully avoided Mr. Chase since early that morning.

"I'm sure I don't know, I had dinner with Mrs. Browne in her room. I fancy he's off attending to the guard. I haven't seen him."

"Nice chap," remarked Deppingham. "Isn't that he now speaking to Agnes out there?"

Geneva looked up quickly. A man's voice came in to them from the balcony, following Lady Deppingham's soft laugh.

"No," she said, settling back calmly. "It's Mr. Browne."

"Oh," said Deppingham, a slight shadow coming into his eyes. "Nice chap, too," he added a moment later.

"I don't like him," said she, lowering her voice.

"I've no doubt Agnes is as much to blame as he," said his lordship at last.

"Why don't you marry him?"

"She's made a fool of more than one man, my dear. She rather likes it."

"He's behaving like a brute. They've been married less than a year."

"It really doesn't amount to anything, Geneva," he argued. "It will blow over in a fortnight. Aggy's always doing this sort of thing, you know."

"I know, Deppy," she said sharply. "But this man is different. He's not a gentleman. Mr. Skaggs wasn't a gentleman. Blood tells. He will boast of this flirtation until the end of his days."

"Aggy's had dozens of men in love with her—really in love," he protested feebly. "She's not!"

"They've come and gone, and she's still the same old Agnes, and you're the same old Deppy. I'm not thinking of you or Aggy. It's Drusilla Browne."

"I see. Thanks for the confidence you have in Aggy. I dare say I know how Drusilla feels. I've—I've had a bad turn or two myself lately, and—but never mind. By the way, what does Chase say about it?" he asked suddenly.

She started and caught her breath. "Mr. Chase? He—he hasn't said anything about it," she responded lamely. "He's—he's not that sort."

"Ah," reflected Deppingham, "he is a gentleman?"

Geneva flushed. "Yes, I'm sure he is."

"I say, Geneva," he said, looking straight into her rebellious eyes, "you're in love with Chase. Why don't you marry him?"

"You—you are really delicious, Deppy," she cried. "The fever has!"

"He's good enough for any one—even you," went on his lordship coolly. "He may have a wife," said she, collecting her wits with rare swiftness.

"Who knows? Don't be silly, Deppy."

"Rubbish! Haven't you stuffed Aggy and me full of the things you found out concerning him before he left Thorberg, and afterward—the letters from the ambassador's wife and the glowing things your St. Peter'sburg friends have to say of him, eh? Besides, he'd give his head to marry you—having already lost it."

"You are very amusing, Deppy, when you try to be clever. Is there a clause in that silly old will compelling me to marry any one?"

"Of course not, my dear princess, but I fancy you've got a will of your own. Where there's a will there's a way. You'd marry him tomorrow if—"

"If I were not amply prepared to contest my own will?" she supplied airily.

"No! If your will was not wrapped in convention three centuries old. You won't marry Chase because you are a princess. I'm awfully sorry for you, Geneva."

"Sorry for me? Dear me!"

"You're tremendously gone on him," "Nonsense! Why, I couldn't marry Mr. Chase," she exclaimed, irritable at last. "Don't put such things into my head—I mean don't get such things into that ridiculous old head of yours. Are you forgetting that I am to become Karl's wife in June? You are babbling, Deppy."

"Well, let's say no more about it," he said, lying back resignedly. "It's too bad, that's all. Chase is a man. Karl isn't. You love him. I don't wonder that you turn pale and look frightened. Take my advice—take Chase."

"Don't!" she cried, a break in her voice. She arose and went swiftly toward the window. Then she stopped and turned upon him, her lips parted as if to give utterance to the thing that was stirring her heart so violently. The words would not come. She smiled plaintively and said instead: "Good night! Get a good sleep."

"The same to you," he called feverishly.

"Deppy," she said firmly, a red spot in each cheek, her voice tense and strained to a high pitch of suppressed decision. "I shall marry Karl Rabetz. That will be the end of your Mr. Chase."

"I hope so," he said. "But I'm not so sure of it if you continue to love him as you do now."

She went out with her cheeks burning and a frightened stir in her heart. Her thoughts raced back to Neenah's airy prophecy.

How could she face the charge, "I'm not so sure of it," unless she killed the indictment, "If you love him as you do now."

Lady Agnes and Browne passed by without seeing her and entered the window. She heard him say something to his companion, softly, tenderly—she knew not what it was. And Lady Agnes laughed—yes, nervously. Ah, but Agnes was playing! She was not in love with this man. It was different. It was not what Neenah meant—nor Deppingham, honest friend that he was.

Down below she heard voices. She wondered—inconsistently alert—whether he was one of the speakers. Thomas Saunders and Miss Pelham were coming in from the terrace. They were in love with each other! They could be in love with each other. There was no law, no convention that said them nay! They could marry—and still love! "If you continue to love him as you do now" battered at the doors of her conscience.

Her maid came in, and she prepared for bed. Left alone, she perched herself in the window seat to cool her heated face with the breezes that swept on ahead of the storm which was coming up from the sea. Her heart was hot; no breeze could cool it; nothing but the ice of decision could drive out the fever that possessed it.

"It is impossible—incredible!" she was saying to herself. "I could not love him like that. I should hate him. God above me, am I not different from those women whom I have known and pitied and despised? Am I not different from Guelma von Herlick? Am I not different from Prince Henri's wife? Ah, and they loved too! And is he not different from those other men—those weak, unmanly men who came into the lives of those women? Ah, yes, yes! He is different."

She sat and stared out over the black sea, lighted fitfully by the distant lightning. There she pronounced sentence upon him—and herself. There was no place for him in her world. He should feel her disdain; he should suffer for his presumption. Presumption? In what way had he offended? She put her hands to her eyes, but her lips smiled—smiled with the memory of the kiss she had returned.

"What a fool! What a fool I am," she cried aloud, springing up resolutely. "I must forget. I told him I couldn't, but I can—I can." Halfway across the room she stopped, her hands flushed fiercely. "If—if Karl were only such as he!" she moaned.

She went to her dressing table and resolutely unlocked one of the drawers, as one would open a case in which the most precious of treasures was kept.

"It was so silly of me!" she muttered. "I shall not keep them for him." The drawer was partly filled with cigarette. She took one from among the rest and placed its tip in her red lips, a reckless light in her eyes. A match was struck, and—her hand seemed to be in the clutch of some invisible force. The light flickered and died in her fingers. A blush suffused her face, her eyes, her neck. Then, with a guilty, shamed, tender smile, she dropped the cigarette into the drawer. She turned the key.

"No," she said to herself; "I told him that I was keeping them for him."

LADY ERSKINE'S CAREER.

Woman Who Died Mysteriously Was a Trained Nurse.

Great interest has been excited all over the world over the mysterious death of Lady Marjorie Erskine, who had been missing a month when her body was found by a workman who was searching for white heather on the Scottish moors.

Lady Marjorie (whose full name was Marjorie Gladys Stuart) was born in 1880, so that she was just thirty years of age.

She was the second of the three pretty daughters of Lord and Lady Buchan, her sisters being Lady Muriel, who married the Hon. Charles Heathcote-Drummond Willoughby, second son of the Earl of Ancaster, and Lady Evelyn, now the wife of the Hon. Walter Guinness, youngest son of Viscount Iveagh.

With wavy brown hair and dark eyes, Lady Marjorie was very popular in society, and she surprised her friends a few years ago when she announced her determination to become a hospital nurse.

She went through a thorough training at Guy's Hospital, and then became a nurse in the Clarence Ward of the Children's Hospital in Great Ormond street.

Wearing a pink cotton gown, with the regulation white cuffs, collar and cap, and a white apron, she was known as "Nurse Erskine" and only the matron and sisters knew that she was in reality Lady Marjorie Erskine.

Like other probationers, Lady Marjorie rose at six in the morning and went on night duty, also taking her share of the hard work, even helping to scrub out the wards, but her health could not stand the strain, and she had to give it up after a year's training.

Like most of the members of Lord Buchan's family, Lady Marjorie was devoted to animals, and for a time she looked after a home for the welfare of cats and dogs.

Just before Christmas, 1903, society was interested in the announcement that a marriage had been arranged between Lady Marjorie and the Hon. Arthur Brodrick, youngest brother of Viscount Middleton.

The engagement came as a surprise, as Mr. Brodrick, who is a well-known and very popular man about town, and who was born in 1863, had come to be looked upon as an inveterate bachelor.

The surprise, however, was much greater, when in less than a fortnight's time the announcement was made that the engagement had been broken off.

The date of the wedding had been fixed for less than a month later, the banns had been published in church, and wedding presents were being received.

Death of Major Hume.

R. B. Cunningham-Graham gives a charming appreciation in The Saturday Review of Major Hume, the authority on things Spanish, who recently died. He had just been to Major Hume's funeral, and writes: "Seldom have I listened to the strong, beautiful words of St. Paul with more attention or less hope. Seldom has the heartrending sound of the earth falling on the coffin given me a greater sense of being left alone. Such earth it was: the marly, gritty earth of Canning Town, which seems as if it was all artificial, not like the wholesome red loam of Warwickshire, or the black Lothian soil, that looks as if a corpse would slowly moulder in it till the judgment day. No Spanish man of letters ever came to London without a visit to Major Hume, and usually the visit meant an hour or two spent in the record office, the museum, or some other place, from which the visitor returned primed full with special information, which he too often got off without saying where it came from."

Don't Be "Fussy."

Don't! Even if you can't try to overcome the failing for the sake of your own health and peace of mind try to do so for the sake of the man you will certainly render wretched one of these days.

It is said that no woman has a proper sense of proportion. The fussy woman certainly hasn't. On her horizon trifles loom like battleships. She never recognizes what really matters and what is unimportant.

As a worker the fussy woman is always a failure. She neither gets through as much work nor allows others to do so. Like a high stepping horse, she is all action, yet makes but little progress. Nevertheless fussiness will age her before her time.

He Knew the Requirements.

Uncle Silas in his youth had been "fond of the society of the opposite sex," to use his own words, and the timidity of his twenty-three-year-old nephew was a great trial to him.

"What's the matter of you, Rod, that you stick at home Sunday evenings?" he demanded plainly after many unavailing hints. "Why don't you go calling on some of your young lady friends, boy?"

"Oh, I don't care about it," said Rodney, turning a lively crimson. "They wouldn't find me interesting."

"Wouldn't?" puffed Uncle Silas. "Well, I should like to be told why they wouldn't! You've got a good black suit and a new hat, and you've got a pair of legs that could take you to the candy shop on Saturday night and enough pockets to put a box or two in. I should like to know what more you need to make 'em find you interesting."—Youth's Companion.

Some English Country Names.

Sussex can produce queer names in plenty—for example, Replenished Pryor, a damsel who dwelt at Heathfield; Mr. Stand-fast-on-high Stringer, Mr. Ales Cressel and Master Performity-vows Seers. The county archives also yield unusual family names, such as Pitchfork, Devil, Leper, Juglery, Beatup, Breathing, Whiskey, Will goose and Lies.

Dorset can hold her own tolerably well with villages named Ryne Intrinsec and Toller Porcorum; rivers called Wriggle River and Devil's Brook, commons christened Giddy Green and God's Blessing Green and heights called Hungry Down, Mount Ararat, Grammars Hill and Dancing Hill. A prospective tenant might well hesitate before signing the lease of Wooden Cabbage Farm, Labor in Vain Farm, Poor Lot Farm and Charity Bottom, even though he should hail from Kent, which owns two Starvecrow farms within a ride of each other.—London Chronicle.

LAST BUFFALO HUNT

THIRTY-FIVE OUTLAWS WILL FURNISH THE CHASE

A Large Party of Alberta Sportsmen is Being Organized to Take Part in Hunting Down the Last Remnant of the Pablo Herd in Montana—Buffalo Refused to be Captured—Will be Last Buffalo Hunt.

Edmonton.—To engage in the last great buffalo hunt of the world, a party of fifteen sportsmen, headed by Howard Douglas, Dominion commissioner of parks, will leave Edmonton on the morning of Thursday, November 3, for the Flathead hills of Montana.

Michael Pablo, the Mexican owner of the big herd of seven hundred buffalo which has been transferred to the Dominion government, weary of efforts to capture alive thirty-five tough old lawless bandits of outlaw-bulls, which have caused all the trouble and stampedes in gathering of herds, has decided to have them hunted down.

He has agreed to furnish any person wanting a buffalo with saddle horses, guns and all necessary equipment for a charge of two hundred and fifty dollars per buffalo. As the head alone is worth five hundred dollars and hide one hundred more, the offer of both adventure and profit appeals greatly to sportsmen.

Mr. Douglas has issued a circular setting forth the particulars of the buffalo hunt and calling for applications for the chase. Among those who have already replied asking for reservations are Sheriff W. S. Robertson, and James Ross, of Edmonton; S. A. Ramsey, late Colonel Walker, of Calgary; A. H. Forster and H. Y. Pauling, of Wainwright.

Mr. Douglas returned to the city from Wainwright, having superintended the unloading of a consignment of buffalo received at the park last week. The buffalo hunt which Alberta sportsmen will engage in will be the last to take place in America, when thirty-five head of outlaw bulls have been shot. The remaining fifty head at large on the Montana plains will be easily rounded up. All the buffalo in the world will then be in captivity with the exception of the wood bison of the north, which are under the protection of the Dominion government and may not be hunted or killed.

COAST TO COAST IN THREE YEARS

President Hays of the G. T. P. Makes Announcement at St. John, N. B.

St. John, N. B.—President Hays, of the Grand Trunk railway, was banqueted by the St. John board of trade. Mr. Hays, in speaking of the Grand Trunk Pacific, said the line would be completed from coast to coast inside of three years, and, in addition to opening up a vast tract of fertile land, would attract tourists from all over the world, as the new road would be the great scenic route.

He spoke of the government's plan of developing the Courtenay Bay terminal, and said if it was carried out St. John would be one of the finest equipped ports on the Atlantic.

Mr. Hays also said trains would soon be running out of St. John over the Grand Trunk Pacific section in this province, but how soon he could not tell until after his inspection of the line.

He paid a warm tribute to Dr. Pugsley's work in developing the port of St. John, and congratulated the city on having such an able representative in parliament.

The minister of public works and others also spoke briefly.

COST OF TAKING NEXT CENSUS

Appointment of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Census Commissioners to be Made

Ottawa.—The appointment of two hundred and twenty-five census commissioners will be begun very shortly by the government. One will be chosen for each electoral district of the country, and recommendations are now being considered. Commissioners will get a lump sum for expenses in proportion to the size of the constituency, and a stated sum per head of population for the revision of the enumerator's list, supervision being directed from Ottawa.

It is estimated that the cost of taking and compiling the census will amount to a million dollars. A hundred and fifty extra clerks will be engaged for the compilation.

Line of Steamers for Hudson Bay

Montreal.—"There will be a line of steamers ready to navigate the waters of the Hudson Bay and establish a new and more northern Atlantic trade route as soon as the new government line for the existing lines in the prairies to the coast, either at Fort Carmichael or Churchill, is built."

This declaration was made by Col. Featherston, a British expert, who has just come from that little-known region on his way to England to present a report as leader of an exploration expedition to a syndicate of British capitalists, who sent him out.

Last Steamer Leaves Dawson for South

Dawson, Yukon.—The steamer Lafrance, the last river boat of the year to sail from Dawson for White Horse, got away last week crowded with hundreds of passengers. All freight for way points will be refused as the boat has to race against ice.

ALBERTA FISH NOT PROTECTED

Irrigation Intakes Are Not Properly Screened and Kill Many Fish

Calgary.—The fisheries commission appointed by the Dominion government to investigate the fisheries situation in Western Canada held a session in Calgary last week.

The commission was composed of Prof. E. E. Prince, chairman; Judge McGuire, of Saskatchewan, and Dr. Sisley, of Calgary.

The investigation brought out several important points; that the fisheries law is a dead letter as far as Alberta is concerned; that a fishery official is a rare sight; that no one bothers about the fishing regulations; that fish are destroyed wholesale by dynamite and brush cribs, and that within the past twenty years the streams have been almost depleted.

Various remedies were suggested by witnesses, the one that found most favor being the establishment of a hatchery for the propagation of mountain trout, while it was also suggested that the irrigation ditches be screened, as they are responsible for the slaughter of fish; that there be a nominal license fee; that there be a close season; that the fire rangers act as fish guardians, and that certain streams be open for fishing according to the time when the propagation of fish was being practiced in those particular streams. All of these suggestions Judge McGuire duly noted.

WANTS AN IRISH PARLIAMENT

Minimum Demand is for an Irish Parliament and Control of all Purely Irish Affairs

London.—The statement of John E. Redmond, recently made to define his attitude and that of his party on the Home Rule question, has aroused the keenest interest in English political circles, more on account of the personal matters involved than as bearing on the position taken by the conference of the leaders of two parties on the veto question. Mr. Redmond, in his statement, denied an alleged interview purporting that he and his party were willing that Home Rule should be delayed in the case of Ireland until England, Scotland and Wales also were ready for federated Home Rule. He said that his minimum demand was for an Irish parliament, an executive responsible thereto, and full control of all purely Irish matters.

The general belief is that the government has secured the Irish leader's acquiescence in a scheme for Home Rule all round as the first step toward the realization of a federal empire, and that the ministers have virtually presented to the Balfourites in the conference an ultimatum demanding the acceptance of this scheme, or as an alternative a fight to a finish on the veto question.

WELLMAN MADE NEW RECORD

Will Make Another Attempt, But in a Different Type of Dirigible Balloon

New York.—Walter Wellman and his five intrepid companions will make another attempt to cross the Atlantic by airship, but it will be in a different type of dirigible balloon. Their perilous first effort, which ended when all were picked up by the steamship Trent, has taught some vital lessons, and Wellman and his men agree that it has shown them the way to ultimate certain success in the daring flight.

Mr. Wellman, discussing the adventures of himself and party, said:

"This particular type of balloon will never do for crossing the ocean. We were disappointed in the equilibrium. It did not serve the purpose we had expected when we started on the voyage, but was a decided detriment. Everything worked all right, and even with a broken motor we could have gone ahead, but without the equilibrium to guide our course we realized that we would have to abandon our air craft."

"After passing Nantucket island, we went north-east for an estimated distance of 140 miles. Our motors were not in use, as the fresh westerly breeze was driving us forward at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. Our chief anxiety was caused by the equilibrium, which was jerking the ship badly as it jumped over the water."

EXPORT OF CATTLE DECREASING

Shipments Show a Falling Off of Over 40 Per Cent., Compared With Last Year

Montreal.—While every steamship company reports an increased business in the carriage of general merchandise to Montreal, and from Montreal to British, European and Mediterranean ports, this year, there has been a striking falling off in cattle.

Up to date only 58,132 head have been carried to Great Britain, as compared with 83,819 at the present time last year.

Crippen to Die on November 15

London.—Sentence of death was passed by Lord Alverstone on Harvey Hawley Crippen for the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, at the conclusion of the sensational trial. The death penalty will be inflicted on November 15. This is according to the English practice of allowing three Sundays between sentence and execution.

O'Donovan Rossa is Critically Ill

EXCLUDE U.S. LUMBER

AGREEMENT BETWEEN MANUFACTURERS AND RETAILERS

The Coast and Mountain Lumber Mills Have Arranged with the Retailers of the Prairies to Handle their Output Exclusively—Price of Lumber Has Been Cut to the Extent of $2 per Thousand.

Vancouver.—Western, Canada will no longer be a dumping ground for the surplus output of American saw mills. By terms of an agreement recently entered into between the retail dealers in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the British Columbia Lumber Mills association, representing the saw mills of the interior prairie, retailers will no longer handle any lumber originating in the United States.

The arrangement is likely to prove effective in excluding the American product of millmen to the south, quoting low prices for their surplus stocks when unable to stand the expense of establishing independent yards of their own in the Canadian prairie regions.

This will mean the mountain and coast millmen will be enabled to ship annually at least two hundred million additional feet of lumber to markets east of the Rockies. The three-cornered agreement has already been ratified by the various interested parties. The coast millmen adopted it at a special meeting held in Vancouver.

It is understood that the movement for overcoming American competition originated with Messrs. A. D. McRae, general manager of the Canadian Western Lumber company, milling at Fraser mills, New Westminster, and E. J. Palmer, manager of the mills of the Chemainus Lumber company at Chemainus, Vancouver Island.

On a recent trip to the prairie provinces, they took up the matter with the retailers, and the present agreement was the result of their negotiations. The coast mills recently cut the price of lumber to prairie dealers to the extent of $2 per thousand, the price delivered being $21.50 per thousand.

COUNTRY IS RICH

Great Amount of Agricultural Land North of Edmonton Ready for Development

Winnipeg.—After spending the summer in that country lying between Edmonton and the Arctic, H. A. Conroy, of the department of Indian affairs, has finished work and is now in the city. Mr. Conroy who was paying treaty money and adjusting difficulties, visited all the Indian tribes along the Mackenzie basin. He states that the condition of the Indians has improved greatly this year, and that the season's trapping should be exceedingly good. Mr. Conroy on this trip left Edmonton early in the summer, and following the usual route. He first went to Fort Simpson, by way of the Athabasca and Mackenzie rivers, then up the Laird river as far as Fort Laird, and along the Nelson and over the divide to Fort St. John. He came back by way of Peace River and Lesser Slave Lake.

Mr. Conroy states that there is a great amount of agricultural land north of the Saskatchewan ready to be developed as soon as transportation facilities are provided. Mr. Conroy is a naturalist by instinct, and his trips through the northern country afford him splendid opportunities for studying the plants and the animals of that country.

CLUE IN DYNAMITING CASE

California Authorities Have Two Suspects Under Surveillance at the Present Time

San Francisco, Cal.—Information that may lead to the apprehension of three men believed to be involved in the Los Angeles Times dynamiting case was received here by Governor Gillett from Secretary of State Knox, who wired the California executive that the state department was in receipt of advices from the Mexican authorities that three suspects were thought to be aboard a Pacific mail steamer bound from San Francisco to Mexican and South American ports.

Secretary Knox, in the telegram, asked whether the men should be kept under surveillance or whether they should be arrested when the boat put in at San Benito.

Governor Gillett notified Secretary Knox, he would give the state department specific instructions as soon as a reply was received from the Los Angeles authorities.

Want Cold Storage Plant Subsidized

Edmonton.—Chief dairy commissioner of the Dominion government, J. A. Ruddick, arrived in town recently and had a conference with the members of the local government regarding the subsidizing of a cold storage plant to be erected in Edmonton in the near future. The only two in the province now are at Calgary and Lethbridge. He expects this part of the province to develop into a great dairying district.

WELCOMED THE NIOBE

Salutes of Seventeen Guns Fired and Official Welcomes Extended to the Officers

Halifax, N.S.—A clear, sunshiny day prevailed for the arrival of the Niobe, but a strong northeast wind caused the harbor to be tipped with whitecaps. Flags were flying from public and private buildings, while there was quite a display of bunting along the waterfront.

At 10 o'clock, Friday morning, the cruiser Canada, with Admiral Kingsmill on board, went down the harbor and met the warship. The admiral went aboard and hoisted his flag. At 12.15 the anchor was weighed, and the warship, decorated with bunting, and accompanied by the Canada, started up the harbor. As she passed the lumber-yard she was greeted with a salute of 17 guns, and whistles were tooted on the various steam craft.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries, went aboard. He was received with a salute of 17 guns. Afterwards Lieutenant-Governor MacGregor, General Drury, Mayor Chisholm, and the principal officials went out on a launch from the dockyard. Mayor Chisholm gave an address of welcome to Captain McDonald and the officers and men, remarking that Halifax had intimate and agreeable relations with the naval service of the empire since 1749, when H. M. sloop Sphinx arrived with Lord Cornwallis. Lieutenant-Governor MacGregor, on behalf of the province, presented the silver plate to the officers, after which a reception was held on board.

RUSSIAN REFUGEE COMMITTED

Fedorenko Must Seek Habeas Corpus Before Fifteen Days or Go Back

Winnipeg.—Fedorenko, the Russian refugee arrested some weeks ago on a requisition from the Russian authorities charging him with murder, robbery, arson and other crimes, was formally committed for extradition by Chief Justice Mathers. This does not mean that Fedorenko will necessarily go back to Russia. This is but the beginning of the legal battle for the refugee's freedom. In which he is backed by the Russian Freedom league with its branches in practically all parts of the world. There is unlimited money behind the defence, and the case will be fought step by step until every possible resort has been exhausted or the man is given his freedom.

Fedorenko has fifteen days in which to make his next move. It will come by way of habeas corpus proceedings, which will bring the case before the court of appeals, but just when the argument will be heard is as yet uncertain.

Chief Justice Mathers stated that he had arranged for a special meeting of the judges of the appeal court to hear the case, as he understood both sides wished an early decision.

ARE KEEN AFTER POWER SITE

Edmonton Intends to Put Up Vigorous Fight Against Violette's Application

Edmonton.—In view of the action of A. Violette in seeking to establish prior rights in the development of power on the Athabasca river which the city proposed to develop, Commissioner Bouillon, acting under instructions from the council, has taken up the matter with the minister of the interior to ascertain the position of the city's claims and to safeguard its interests. The commissioners are united in the opinion that a vigorous fight should be conducted against Violette's application. They express the opinion that the cities in the province and the province generally should have the prior right to individuals or corporations. An effort is being made to have other cities and the provincial government co-operate. The result of this agitation may be some such scheme as Ontario's new hydro-electric power system.

LACOMBE HOME IS COMPLETED

Opening Has Been Delayed Owing to Some of the Furnishings Not Having Arrived

Calgary.—The Lacombe home, that fine institution which Father Lacombe has built at Midnapore, is now completed, but the opening is delayed because some of the furnishings have not arrived. But all will be ready in a few days, as the sisters and nurses are there already and are preparing everything for the patients.

Those who will be admitted to the home are the unfortunates of all ages and all denominations, who are destitute or in ill health, and are unable to look after themselves. Father Lacombe announces that those who want to assist financially in the work of the institution can send their donations to him at the home.

The date of the opening of the home will be announced later.

Alberta-C. P. R. Case to be Heard

Edmonton.—S. B. Woods, former deputy attorney-general for Alberta, has left for England to represent Alberta before the privy council in the appeal of the province for the right to tax C. P. R. lands. Saskatchewan is also appealing on this question. The case came on last spring but was adjourned until November.

Will Recognize Portugal as Republic

Berlin.—Great Britain has proposed that all the powers recognize the republic in Portugal at the same time. German has replied approving the suggestion.

ARE A GREAT ASSET

VALUE OF ROCKY MOUNTAINS TO CANADA

The Superintendent of Dominion Forestry Speaks of the Conservation of Resources—Only About Ten Per Cent. of the Timber Lost Has Been Used for Lumber—Forests Are Necessary to Development.

Calgary.—"I would like to urge upon the members of the Canadian club, and the citizens of Calgary who may go out into the Rocky mountains or forest districts, the absolute necessity for the utmost care being taken at all times in regard to the handling of fires," said R. H. Campbell, superintendent of Dominion Forestry, who, in speaking of the devastation wrought among the forests through fires, before a large meeting of the Canadian club, illustrated some steps that might be taken to protect the trees.

W. Pearce, who later moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Campbell, gave the startling statistics that of the timber lost in the last century from the forest on the American continent, only ten per cent had been cut for actual use. The other ninety per cent. had been destroyed by fire.

Mr. Campbell argued that the preservation of the forests for legitimate use only, was as much to the interests of the general public as to the interest of the lumbermen, for, affecting as it did the water supply, useful as they were in providing some of the requisites of mining; in forming recreation grounds; in sheltering game, and in their streams they are the most important part of the natural resources of Canada.

The prairie country could not have been built up without having the forests to fall back upon, for the forests must always be a permanent feature in civilization. It was sometimes said that the time was coming when there would be no great necessity for wood, but if the question was studied carefully it would be found that even though there were so many substitutes for wood, as a matter of fact the consumption of wood is increasing fast.

Some people might think that the Rocky Mountain range is not one of the best assets of the country, that it would be much better if it was levelled down into good agricultural land.

"I would like to point out that if the Cypress range to the southeast of here did not exist, that the water supply would be seriously interfered with," he said. "The hills are responsible for the development of irrigation, of water powers, and other purposes. The elevations are really one of the greatest assets of Alberta."

There were several lines of policy on which they must develop if they came to the conclusion that they were going to handle the forests properly. Lands should be set apart for forest purposes and in doing that it would not be necessary to interfere with other interests because forests grew on lands that are not suitable for anything else. He thought the term of "reserve" unfortunate, and that the American words, National forests, were more explanatory, because it was not intended that they should be shut up from use and proper exploitation. It simply meant that the nation laid down a policy that certain tracts should be administered, with the preservation of the forests as one of the main objects in view.

In the Rocky Mountain district they had recently set apart reserves on the eastern slopes and the first object was to reserve timber. With that timber it would be possible to develop the mining industry. The geological department had calculated that there were twenty-two and one-half billion tons of coal along the eastern slope of the Rockies.

"If you are going to get that coal out you are going to require forty-five billion lineal feet of wood, and in order to get that wood it will take the product of nine million acres for sixty years," estimated Mr. Campbell.

Warning From Strathcona

London.—Lord Strathcona in his report on immigration says: "Assistance which is rendered to Canadians who become destitute in Europe is a matter which demands increasing amount of time and attention is this department. The fund appropriated by parliament for this purpose is a very small one and great care has to be exercised in its distribution. Some of the persons who are assisted in this way are young people who believe rightly or wrongly that London offers a great career to them. Such persons should consider well before they decide to come to this side and should take note of the fact that there is much competition in all branches of human effort."

Edmonton Brewing Co. Sued

Edmonton.—The Anheuser-Busch Brewing company has applied to Chief Justice Harvey for an injunction to restrain the Edmonton Brewing and Malting company from selling its beer, which is the subject of a law suit between the two companies. The grounds of the litigation are that the labels of the two beers are so similar that it leads to confusion of the two brands. The injunction has not been heard.

TROCHU NEWS

From the Trochu Times

THE SCHOOL CONCERT

A very successful and entertaining concert, box social and dance were held in the pool hall on Friday evening, Oct 21, for the purpose of raising a fund in aid of the establishment of a library for both the secular and Roman Catholic schools of Trochu. L C Eckenfelder acted as chairman for the evening.

The programme was well arranged, and those ladies and gentlemen who were kind enough to offer their services for the occasion rendered their parts extremely well, as the numerous encores bore evidence. Mrs Webster and Mrs L H Roach sang excellent songs, whilst Mrs Pearson and the Misses Lee, Durant, Thompson, Buckley and Smith gave some interesting readings and recitations. Miss Dodd was kind enough to act as accompanist, and Mrs Trochu and Mrs de Chaunc gave a very pretty and effective duet on the piano. On the other side, Harry Durant amused the audience very much with his humorous recitations.

At the conclusion of the concert J C Burns stepped onto the platform and auctioned off a large number of lunch boxes, meeting with very good success. Four dollars was the highest bid. Harry Bernard being the "lucky" purchaser.

After the large number of people present had partaken of the refreshment which the lunch boxes afforded, the floor was cleared and dancing was soon in full swing, lasting into a late hour. The evening passed off enjoyably in every way.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Presbyterian, Nov 6 evening service at 7 p.m. Nov 13 afternoon service at 2 p.m.

Roman Catholic, Low Mass every Sunday at 8 a.m. High Mass every Sunday at 10 a.m. Benediction 6 p.m.

J H Potts has purchased D Stern's interest in the firm of Potts & Stern, butchers.

A very successful and enjoyable dance and concert was held at the Paulson schoolhouse on Friday evening, Oct 21st. A large number of people from all parts of the district being present. Mr Malcolm presided as chairman.

THREE HILLS TOWNSITE

Although the sale of the G T P townsite of Three Hills was announced under the name of the company's land commissioner to take place at Didsbury on October 25, the people of Three Hills were by no means disposed to take everything for granted, and there, apparently existed some doubt among the business people as to whether the townsite was official. In order to clear the matter up, and make sure of their ground, they wired G U Ryley, G T P R Land Commissioner, Winnipeg, enquiring if the townsite advertised in their name was the real G T P townsite. Mr Ryley is understood to have wired the following reply: "G T P townsite at Three Hills official, will guarantee station and at least one elevator on townsite."

CIVILIAN RIFLE ASSOCIATION

It is generally believed that the financial position of the Trochu Civilian Rifle Association is far from satisfactory. Very few of the people who subscribed their names as members have paid their subscriptions, and whilst the club has no immediate need for funds, the time is drawing near when the membership fees will have to be paid in.

In addition to the unsatisfactory financial position of the club, the officials have to face the unpleasant fact that only a very small number of the club's members have shot over the range. The government regulations require that each member shall fire off so many rounds at the respective ranges. Not very much can be done now in the matter of rifle practice but delinquent members should make the best of a bad job and not miss the opportunity, which a fine day presents, to fire off a few rounds of ammunition at the target.

It is rumoured that the Presbyterian church is to be painted and decorated next month.

Work on the cement foundations and basement walls of the new Trochu Hospital is now completed and construction of the first, second and third stories will be started next week. The building will eventually be veneered with brick.

It appears that a few people in the outlying portions of the Trochu district are under the impression that the village of Trochu is affected with a large number of typhoid cases. In consequence of this belief they have not cared to venture into the village. The impression which these people have is an entirely wrong one. Trochu is not affected in any way with typhoid. There has not been a single case of typhoid in Trochu. The people who are unfortunate enough to be suffering with this fever in the Trochu Hospital have all been brought in for medical attention from outlying districts in the north.

A Wife's Message She Cured Her Husband of Drinking

Write Her Today and She Will Tell You How You Can Do the Same

For over twenty years her husband was a hard drinker. He had tried in every way to stop but could not do so, but nine years ago she stopped his drinking entirely by using a simple remedy which any one can give secretly. Hundreds have freed their homes from drink by following her advice. The method is easy and sure. If you have a dear one who drinks we earnestly advise you to write to her at once. She makes no charge for her help, (she asks for no money and accepts none) she only asks that you are personally interested in saving one who drinks. Here is her address—

CAUSE AND CURE OF RHEUMATISM

Due to Impurities in the Blood—Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The most noticeable and immediate result of rheumatism is a marked thinning of the blood, and in no disease does it develop more rapidly. Not only does the blood become weak but it is soon filled with impurities, which the different organs of the body have been unable to throw off. One of the most harmful of these impurities is uric acid, which is formed from the waste products of the body. In health it is readily passed off by the kidneys with the help of oxygen from the red corpuscles of the blood. Without oxygen the kidneys are unable to rid the system of this acid and it is retained in the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. The weak back, pains across the kidneys and thin scanty, highly colored secretions, which follow, show that the acid is already in the blood and often leads the sufferer to think he has kidney trouble. If the disease is not driven out of the blood, rheumatism can never be cured, and the sufferer will always be subject to attacks, whenever exposed to damp or cold. With each returning attack the pain becomes more severe and complications often arise making necessary the use of habit forming drugs to relieve pain.

It is readily seen that the only way to cure rheumatism is through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills afford such a treatment as they contain all the elements necessary to build up and purify the blood. They increase its oxygen carrying capacity enabling the kidneys to pass the uric acid from the body and the other organs to do their work. Thus rheumatism is reached at its root and permanently cured. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are absolutely free from all habit-forming drugs, and are not an experiment as the following case will show:

—Mr. W. Stutley Lewis, Pilot Mound, Man., says:—"I am a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and always keep some by me in case of need. A few years ago while teaching school I suffered so much with rheumatism in my arms and shoulders that I had the greatest difficulty in writing on the blackboard, and after trying a number of remedies without benefit, I was almost in despair, and felt inclined to abandon teaching. But one day I happened to pick up one of Dr. Williams' almanacs, and read of the cure of a number of severe cases of rheumatism through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This decided me to give the Pills a trial, and I had only taken them a few weeks when I felt much better. In the course of a few weeks more the pains and stiffness had all left me, and I had no more difficulty in doing my work. I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they and they alone cured me of my rheumatism."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

He Only Hooted

"Mother," said a six-year-old hopeful, "isn't it funny that everybody calls little brother a bouncing baby?"
"Why do you think it's funny, Willie?" replied his mother. "Because when I dropped him on the floor this morning he didn't bounce a bit; he only hooted."

"That," said Blinkers, as he gaped in astonishment at his wife's new hat, "is the biggest thing I ever saw."

"Oh, that's nothing," rejoined Mrs. B. "Just wait till you get the bill for it."

Scott—"Half the people in the world don't know what the other half are doing."

Mott—"No, that is because the other half are doing them."

Mr. John Tyrrell

Scratched Until I Tore The Flesh

"It was in the latter end of the year 1908 that a nasty itch came through my skin, and I scratched it until I tore the flesh. I tried several ointments to no effect. I went to a skin hospital. They advised me to go to the Hospital, but I refused. I could not sleep with the constant itch. I was that way until on about the month of January. One day I chanced to see in the papers a case like mine, but I gave it no credence. At last I said, 'I will try the Cuticura Remedies.' With the first wash and Cuticura Ointment I used, I found their effects. I got one box of the Ointment more, and in less than one week the skin was all right, and left no traces after it. I have not had a return of the same since, and I shall always praise the Cuticura Remedies as being the means of my cure."

(Signed) JOHN TYRRELL,
94, Scotland Road, Liverpool.

In a further letter Mr. Tyrrell adds: "The first appearance of my skin eczema was a burning itch which I tore and left my body, legs and arms one mass of sores. It caused sleepless nights, but now I can sleep as well as ever."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WONDERFUL CURE OF RHEUMATISM BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Mrs. Hutchins, of Dunham, Que., Could Not Walk Across the Room—Story of Her Speedy and Complete Cure.

Dunham, Que. (Special).—Missquoi County is ringing with the story of Mrs. G. M. Hutchins, who after suffering from Rheumatism, Lumbago and Neuralgia, is again a strong, hearty woman. In an interview, Mrs. Hutchins says:

"I was affected with Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Lumbago. My limbs would swell; my muscles would cramp; I was nervous and had a heavy dragging pain across the loins. 'I could not even walk across the room. Then I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills, and after taking six boxes found myself in the best of health—as well as ever I was in my life.'"

Mrs. Hutchins' troubles were all caused by Kidney Disease. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them so completely and quickly. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure only Kidney Disease, but they are a sure cure for any form of it from Backache to Bright's Disease.

He was an observant little chap, with a knack of storing knowledge wonderful in one so young. But he rather spoilt himself the other day.

The little boy sighed. "The last three days," he said, "they give them everything to eat they ask for, don't they, pa?"

It has been a popular medicine for many years and thousands can attest its superior qualities in overcoming dysentery and kindred complaints.
